We read it with my 6 yo in one evening! couldn't stop reading! 5 of 5 people found the following review helpful. It's a children's book By ASI It's a children's book! Description is misleading - H.O.U.S.E.: Homes That Are Outrageous, Unbelievable, Spectacular, and Extraordinary: 35 Designs for Fantastic Living (?) but the book is pretty cool! It's worth trying out. 4 of 10 people found the following review helpful. Needs photographs! By Sibeliu A neat book that showcases interesting homes (things like egg shaped dwellings, houses with walls made of fabric curtains, etc) around the world. This book utilizes 100% stylized illustrations which gives it a nice look but makes the overall reading experience somewhat frustrating because it would've been nice to see actual photographs of the various dwellings.

A brightly colored, beautifully illustrated guide to the world's most astounding homes as well as their audacious owners and the radical architects who created them. An illustrated treat that's equally captivating for its quirky, cartoonish design as for the bizarre and wonderful architecture it illuminates, H.O.U.S.E. immediately stands out from other architecture books, appealing to curious minds, inspiration-seeking artists, and parents looking to creatively engage their children. An international award-winner from the famous polish design studio, Hipopotam, H.O.U.S.E. is a window into a more vibrant, surprising, and delightful world where the imagination can become as real as the place you call home.
