A delightful guide to one of the most enduring and exquisite styles of landscape gardening, this little book features pond, dry, tea, stroll and courtyard gardens, features on tsukubai and topiary, and a directory of best plants.

About the AuthorCharles Chesshire studied and toured in Japan, and then built a Japanese tea garden at his home. He is curator of the National Collection of Clematis held in Burford House Gardens, Worcestershire, and he gives lectures on clematis, roses, garden design and Japanese gardens.
