He tells you how to solve all sorts of problems by using everyday items you may have around the house. This book doesn't just cover gardening tips, it also covers a variety of subjects; i.e., lawn mowers, caring for garden gloves and hoses, patio furniture, etc. I also like the strange facts he incorporates in most chapters. Interesting reading. I will be implementing a lot of his tips into my outdoor tasks. 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Packed with useful information By Tom Stiles (hamrad88) I was very impressed with the book about gardening. I have several of Joey Green's books and all contain a wealth of information. I would definitely recommend this book for novice and generally knowledgeable gardeners. The book is well organized and subjects are easy to find. The beauty of these types of books is the information never gets out of date and you can find some great buys on used copies that are like brand new. Shipping from the seller I used was very fast and the book was like brand new. Tom 2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. LET'S GARDEN By EASY TRAVELER TRIVIA YES. BUT I BET YOU SEE SOMETHING YOU DIDN'T KNOW! AND I BET YOU SEE SOMETHING YOU CAN USE IN YOUR GARDEN. I NEVER WOULD HAVE THOUGHT OF WETTING NEWSPAPERS BEFORE USING THEM TO CONTROL WEEDS. IT'S VERY WINDY HERE. WET THEY WON'T BLOW AWAY SO EASY! THAT'S WORTH THE BOOK'S PRICE ALL BY IT'S SELF !GOOD BOOK.

Feed your plants Aunt Jemima Original Syrup?! From the man who taught Jay Leno to shave with Jif Peanut Butter and helped Rosie O'Donnell condition her hair with Reddi-wip comes the first gardening book that tells you how to use the brand-name products sitting in your pantry right now to help you solve all your gardening problems. The ever-inventive Joey Green returns with countless new ways to utilize products you'll find around your house-- saving yourself a trip (or trips!) to the garden center. Joey Green's Gardening Magic is a treasure trove of inexpensive, quirky tips, like how to: * Boost a compost pile with Coca-Cola * Control Japanese beetles with Wesson Corn Oil * Fertilize a lawn with Maxwell House Coffee * Protect tomato seedlings with Dixie Cups * Lubricate a lawn mower with Jif Peanut Butter * Deter deer with Bounce * Feed your flowers with Lipton Tea Bags And much, much more! * Control aphids with Tabasco Sauce * Waste weeds with Heinz White Vinegar * Germinate seeds with Bounty Paper Towels * Make a scarecrow with Glad Trash Bags

From Booklist Whether gardeners are going toe-to-toe with Mother Nature or head-to-head with roving raccoons, it seems they're forever facing frustration. Though garden centers abound with gadgets and potions promising to eradicate even the most obstinate pest or problem, resourceful gardeners who enjoy relying on their own craftiness will welcome Green's shrewd solutions to common garden complaints using garden-variety products. From baking soda and bubble wrap to peanut butter and panty hose, many ordinary kitchen and bath items can be pressed into double duty. Entertainingly written, Green's fun yet factual, peculiar yet practical guide, covers the gamut of garden and garden-related vexations, from ants to zucchini, barbecues to boots. Carefully researching thousands of popular products, often going straight to the manufacturers to learn how and why items may have uses their inventors never intended, Green appeals to the cunning side of every intrepid gardener who has ever had to shoo a squirrel or stymie a slug. These applications appear to be environmentally safe and non-hazardous to humans and will be appreciated by organic gardeners. . . . overall, this entertaining work offers sound, practical advice." --Library Journal From the Back Cover/a
