KinneyThis volume is the perfect anecdote to the rush and tumult of today's world. Reminds us of the slow march of time through the seasons regardless of human attempts to hurry the pace. Selections from some of the world's greatest poets and writers, all carefully chosen, ranging from sorrow to humor to joy. Great gift for the holiday season!!

This delightful volume is a collection of memorable writingsfrom Horace and Shakespeare to Rilke and Robert Froston the four seasons of the year, highlighting the happiness we can find in each. Accompanying the texts are beautiful and evocative paintings: from Botticelli to the wonderful Swedish modern Carl Larsson. These classic authors and artists share their visions of the beauty and poetry of every season. This latest offering of the renowned editors John Train and Linda Kelly will make a perfect Christmas gift.
