I have a booth in an antique shop and I love looking for antiques and other items that I can use to recycle. These books have been very helpful!8 of 8 people found the following review helpful. Full of great ideas!By Lady JaneThis book is full of great ideas to make items to use around the house or to give as gifts using many of the bits and pieces of memorblia I've saved because they are special or unique but haven't known what to do with them ... now I'm busy making all kinds of projects described in the book. It's so great I've given it to others as gifts.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Stimulate the mind!By Lin C.Had some wonderful ideas, many I have already done, so looking forward to a new book.

In Junk Genius, you will find highly rewarding and money-saving repurposing projects, and discover why making your own is a trend well worth exploring. Juliette Goggin and Stacy Sirk have created over 40 projects using items you can easily find or might already have. Discover creative ways to use glass and old crates as well as no end of uses for paper, including crafting with wallpaper, stamps and old photos. Add something different to your household with a range of light fittings made from colanders and even jelly moulds! Transform old keys into a range of items, from jewellery to door handles. Finally, try making unwanted jumpers into cosy pillow covers. Whether you are a beginner or experienced crafter, you will learn to hunt out and see the potential in a whole range of items, and be inspired to transform your treasure trove of useable raw materials into stunning new accessories for your home. Taps into the popular upcycling market, appealing to those just discovering a love of crafting, as well as those rediscovering long-forgotten crafting skills.
