Kirstie Allsopp : Kirstie's Homemade Home before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Kirstie's Homemade Home:

3 of 3 people found the following review helpful. Craft Projects Made Easy By Psyckers This book is perfect for any little craft project you would want to do around the home. The easy stepwise instruction and intuitive reasonings and other tips and tricks makes this book an easy read. I certainly recommend this book for any person who wants to get crafty around the home.

Kirstie's Homemade Home is about a journey the author made into a world which she thought she knew, but didn't. It's a world full of dedicated and talented people in England who make beautiful things, both traditional and modern that support the wonderful crafting heritage they have in the UK. If, like her, you have ever been caught at a yard sale or antiques market and couldn't keep control of your purse, or if you're curious and want to have a rummage for the first time, then this book is for you. It's Kirstie's experience of a world which is as vast and varied as you can possibly imagine. It's about women and men who are ensuring that handmade British things are here to stay. And it's packed with their expert advice on creating your own homemade home. If you enjoyed the TV series, then the book takes it one step further with her advice on interior decor, plus the shops and websites that have transformed her life. If you didn't see the show, then welcome to her world. It's a book for mothers and daughters, and trust me, sons. If you're looking for a new hobby, there is nothing more manly than blacksmithing or glassblowing, and few projects more satisfying than flower arranging or mini cake decoration. Or if you just want a moment to yourself and something lovely to look at, then this book will not disappoint. Try it you have nothing to lose but your flatpack furniture!

Great for homeowners who want to add personalised and handmade finishing touches to their home without spending a fortune * Real Homes magazine * Do you aspire to live in a cosy home full of cute vintage finds as well as your own crafted efforts? You've just found your bible . . . Admirers of the mismatched, homemade look will find this book hugely inspiring * Heat * About the Author Kirstie Allsopp is the star of Channel 4's Kirstie's Homemade Home and the co-presenter, with Phil Spencer, of Location, Location, Location and Relocation, Relocation.
